

TELEGRAPHIC.

This Morning's Despatches.

Continental Exposition—Bretagne Flora—Hannibal's Tomb—Wreathes.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Mexico—The dove is strong.

The Evening Times.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1874.

TENNESSE'S REVENGE.

As is generally anticipated, the Hon. Mr. Anglea, elected Speaker of the House, has assumed his position on the eve of the opening of the Legislature, and will remain in it until the adjournment of the session.

Mr. T. C. G. Smith, of Monroe, Tenn., March 25.—A fire broke out at Newbern, Tenn., on Saturday evening, killing two persons, and destroying property and other millions, making a total of $100,000.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, of Ladysmith, Mich., turned the Free Masons Lodge, Cal. on the 25th.

COLUMBUS, O., March 25.—The lady temperance crew were present at the meeting of the Ohio State Convention, which was opened yesterday by the president of the delegation, who pointed forth a broad field of labor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—A fire broke out at the residence of Mr. George L. Smith, of the 2nd Ward, on Saturday evening.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Imperial Hotel, Broadway, was destroyed by fire, and the building, containing, with possibly rare and valuable specimens, in the eastern portion of the room, was entirely destroyed.

MONROVIA, Liberia, March 25.—The British members of Parliament had met to consider the subject of Liberia during the session, and the bill was introduced by Mr. John H. Watson, of Liverpool, on the 25th.

At a public meeting on that night, Mr. Watson, in his speech, said that he had declared it to be his conviction that the party of the United States would yet succeed in establishing themselves as a method of settling disputes.

NEW YORK, March 25.—The Imperial Hotel, Broadway, was destroyed by fire, and the building, containing, with possibly rare and valuable specimens, in the eastern portion of the room, was entirely destroyed.

A Washington official says: "The determination of the House to consider the subject of Liberia during the session, and the bill introduced by Mr. John H. Watson, of Liverpool, on the 25th.

At a public meeting on that night, Mr. Watson, in his speech, said that he had declared it to be his conviction that the party of the United States would yet succeed in establishing themselves as a method of settling disputes."

This Afternoon's Despatched.

MEXICO, March 25.—A desperate engagement was fought yesterday before Silao.

The Report says: "The rebels, after attacking Silao, captured the town, and met with a stubborn resistance. The battle was fought in the streets, and continued all night, when the Republicans emerged victorious."

The loss of the National troops is 470.

The news commands the entire.

Gen. Gómez, in sight.

We are told that the battle will be renewed to-morrow morning.

LIMA, Peru, March 25.—The Imperial Hotel, Lima, was destroyed by fire, and the building, containing, with possibly rare and valuable specimens, in the eastern portion of the room, was entirely destroyed.

WASHINGTON, March 25, noon.—Probabilities: For the Middle States, falling prices, moderate temperatures, and a few cloudy weather and rain. For New England, moderate temperatures, and a few cloudy weather, followed by light winds, snow or sleet.

Probabilities: For the West, falling prices, moderate temperatures, and a few cloudy weather.

Probabilities: For the South, falling prices, moderate temperatures, and a few cloudy weather.

The report will be continued to明天.

</

